

CAPRI SCHOOL OF EUROPEAN PROCEDURAL LAW

III EDITION

26 - 29 MAY 2025

ABOUT US

The Capri School of European Procedural Law, affiliated with the University of Naples “Federico II” Postgraduate Course in European Union Law, offers an intensive, advanced training program in European litigation. Our focus is on both EU and national courts, providing a comprehensive understanding of procedural law. The faculty includes EU law professors, judges, advocates general, legal secretaries from the Court of Justice of the European Union, and experienced lawyers from international firms.

CSEPL is led by Prof. Roberto Mastroianni, judge at the EU General Court, and Prof. Fabio Ferraro, Director of the Federico II Postgraduate Course in European Union Law, ensuring a blend of academic and practical perspectives in our teaching approach.

WHY CHOOSE US?

We focus on delivering high-level expertise in EU Procedural Law, a crucial area for contemporary legal professionals. Understanding this facet of law is essential for navigating the complexities of modern legal systems.

CONTACT US

+39 081 2536626

csepl@unina.it

<https://www.tuteladirittiue.unina.it/summer-school-en/>

Corso di Perfezionamento in Diritto dell'Unione europea: La Tutela dei diritti tuteladirittiue

WHAT WE OFFER

Our four-day lecture series encompasses a range of fundamental topics:

- The institutional framework of the Court of Justice of the European Union
- Preliminary ruling procedure
- Direct actions
- Rules of procedure before the CJEU
- Enforcement of EU law in national courts

Lectures are set against the stunning backdrops of Capri and Naples, offering an inspiring environment for learning and exploration.

During the CSEPL, participants will have the opportunity to hold interviews with attorneys from the sponsoring law firms.

CSEPL meets ELMAA

We have a collaborative partnership with the SUMMER SCHOOL ON EUROPEAN UNION LAW, organized by ELMAA - European Law Master's Alumni Association of the Law School of Athens.

This enriching program is scheduled to take place in CORFU from 21 to 25 July 2025.

In a concerted effort to provide a comprehensive and multifaceted understanding of EU law, both summer schools have agreed to offer a special preferential rate for participants attending both programs.

PROGRAM OUTLINE

Experience an immersive and comprehensive program spread across four days:

2 Days in Capri (26/05 to 27/05)

- the institutional aspects of the Court of Justice and the General Court
- the preliminary ruling procedure
- direct actions and the infringement procedure

2 Days in Naples (28/05 to 29/05)

- the rules of procedure of the Court of Justice and the General Court
- the application of European Union Law within national legal orders

Our lecturers include:

- Judges, Advocates General, and Legal Secretaries from the Court of Justice of the European Union, offering firsthand insights into EU judicial processes.
- Professors specializing in EU law, providing the theoretical framework.
- Lawyers from leading European law firms, bringing practical, real-world applications and case studies.

This program promises a blend of theoretical knowledge and practical insights, set in two of Italy's most captivating cities.

HOW TO ENROL

The Capri School of European Procedural Law welcomes a group of up to 40 participants.

This includes lawyers, law or political science graduates, and students eager to deepen their understanding of European procedural law.

To apply, please email csepl@unina.it with your curriculum vitae (CV) and a brief letter of motivation.

Tuition Fee: €300

Discounted fee: €180 for:

- Attendees of the CORFU SUMMER SCHOOL
- Students and Alumni of the Federico II Postgraduate Course in European Union Law
- Undergraduate students
- Early bird registrations (before 15 March)

Additionally, CSEPL has partnered with select hotels in Capri to offer discounted rates to our participants. Details regarding these accommodations and the special rates will be provided via email upon enrollment.